WELL SAID

Train up a child in the way he should go—but be sure you go that way yourself.

—Charles Spurgeon

A man ought to live so that everybody knows he is a Christian ... and most of all, his family ought to know.

—Dwight L. Moody

A father's responsibility is not to make the child's decisions, but to let the child watch him make his.

—Ed Cole

Countless mistakes in marriage, parenting, ministry, and other relationships are failures to balance grace and truth. Sometimes we neglect both. Often we choose one over the other.

—Randy Alcorn

Remember that you are not called to produce successful, upwardly mobile, highly educated, athletically talented machines... Giving your children great opportunities is good; it is not, however, the goal of parenting. Christlikeness is. Above all, seek to raise children who look and act a lot like Jesus.

—Chip Ingram
